

“Baritone Soloist Omar Baker Added to Nightly Live Entertainment Roster”

Article Excerpt –
By: Kathy Prutos

Thirty-year-old Baker, who sings more than 1,000 songs, has been indisputably influenced by the 20th-century’s greatest singer of popular song – Frank Sinatra. Learning his breath control from Sinatra, crooning from Bing Crosby and blues singer Billie Holiday’s rhythmic swing, Baker has mainstreamed the concept of singing colloquially, treating lyrics as personal statements and handling melodies with the ease of a jazz improviser.